

February 2011
Sponsors

ArtSpace by the Numbers

- ZB is returning to Cleveland from San Francisco and is active in the Northcoast Collective, a traveling art exhibition to promote Cleveland artists and the city as a place for artists to live and work.
- JP is a theater artist looking for a live/work space in the Ohio City area. Can we help him?
- MH sought ArtSpace-Cleveland's advice to renovate a building for artist studios.
- Five artists contacted ArtSpace-Cleveland to join in an artist ownership project to build equity and have control over their property.
- A beautician and student at CCC wants to open a beauty salon in a live/work studio in an industrial building. It's complicated.

ArtSpace-Cleveland is a resource to help artists find live/work space in Cleveland. Contact: (216)241-4355 or gouldloft@sbcglobal.net

ArtSpace-Diary

- The Campus District and the St. Clair Superior Development Corporation are meeting with artists to find ways to connect with each other.
- I've been thinking about traditional homes designed for the typical American lifestyle vs. an artist

FORESTCITY

THE PLAIN DEALER
MISS A DAY. MISS A LOT.

4 design

THE ROY GROUP

HAMILTON LOFTS
1549 Hamilton Avenue

ROSE MANAGEMENT CO.
3631 Perkins Avenue

STRAUSS ELECTRIC SUPPLY
4412 Superior Avenue

open studio loft where rooms do not define their space. Why are artists attracted to this life style?

Industrial-Chic Abodes

flickr Bushwick Artist Lofts

Featured Organization

The Parma Area Fine Arts Council provides a creative outlet for the Parma community with exhibits and classes in wood carving, watercolor, acrylic painting, stained glass, jewelry making, and precious metal clay. See Artists Emery Bogardy and Debby Newell

Rich the Wood

MACS BACKS BOOKS
1820 Coventry Road

