John Davis "Why I Came Back to Cleveland"

The health issues that brought me back to Cleveland became a great gift. I discovered a rich artistic community and a great market for my work.

- I was also able to establish the Willoughby Hills Community Center Gallery to help other artists sell their work and find a new audience.

Moving to The Tower Press building has offered me a new beginning. It gives me a chance to be surrounded by other artists and become more involved in the Cleveland art scene.

I am painting and offering custom framing. Gallery and Custom Framing by appointment or chance. Discount for Artists.
