

Why Artists Chose Cleveland Interview with Debra Rosen and Todd Pownell, TAP Studios, Jewelry Workshop

Todd is from Stow and Debra from Cleveland Heights

The live/work space we found in the Loft Works Building was perfect for our needs. We wanted something large enough to have a workshop and living space (it made sense economically) plus we love the urban landscape.

How are things going?

- We have experienced continuous growth since 2003. Initially our focus was to build a gallery for the fabulous work created by art jewelers. We also had a regular schedule of jewelry fabrication classes and workshops. Gradually our own work began to take over. The space that was once used as a gallery is encompassed by our ever-growing collection of tools and benches.
- We absolutely love and support the neighborhood. The restaurants are fabulous and we use local businesses whenever we can. Actually the location is central and easy to get to for both our east and west side visitors.
