

Free Trolley Rides Showcase Cleveland Neighborhoods

The 13th annual SPARX City Hop will be held on Saturday, September 19, 2015 from 11am - 6pm. Cleveland's inner most districts will be in full swing as the community is invited to explore the visual, culinary and performing arts of our city with free trolley rides, live music, and fun activities. The Blue Line Trolley stops at Tower Press in the Superior Arts District. Learn more and plan your tour here.

Acme Artists Community in Chicago A Model for Artist Ownership

Acme is the first work/live artists community in Chicago designed, managed and owned by its members. Located at 2418 West Bloomingdale in Humboldt Park, the project is unique because it has been developed through grassroots participation to achieve affordable, sustainable, energy efficient space well suited to the

Located in a rehabbed warehouse, the 17 residential and 3 commercial units house artists and their families in an environment supportive of creative work and collaboration. The community is structured as a limited-equity condominium association; the Near NorthWest Arts Council is the nonprofit developer and a resident member. Training and technical assistance provided by the Chicago Mutual Housing Network, also a residential member.

Acme Artists Community, which reached full capacity for its 25 affordable living-and-workspace condos, is being hailed as a model for affordable artist communities.

ArtSpace-Cleveland's mission is to revitalize the community by connecting artists with studio spaces to live, work and create in the City of Cleveland. In 2011 ArtSpace-Cleveland expanded its mission to include an artist ownership initiative modeled after the Acme Artist Community in Chicago.

Artists Looking for Space

- Artist living and working in Chicago is looking for a more affordable studio space in Cleveland.
- Make-up artist/cosmetic consultant living and teaching in Summit County wants to relocate to Cleveland to join a creative community.
- ArtSpace-Cleveland on-line newsletter subscribers include two photographers, a medical illustration artist, an artist/farmer, and an artist living in Boston.
